Facts of Our Faith

We say in the Apostles Creed that we believe in God, the Father Almighty. To believe that God is Father means to believe that we are his sons and daughters. And that God our Father accepts and loves us and has created us to love him. In order to love him we must know him. The Church teaches that we will know the Father through Jesus his Son the Word made flesh. Our response to God's Word should be as conscientious listeners to his gospel. Jesus himself teaches that we can know the Father by knowing the Son. Christ taught the Apostles to pray to our Father not his Father. God wants us to have access to him through the Word made flesh and thus become sharers in the divine nature. Through the Holy Spirit we are meant to live a sanctifying life that is a created sharing of God's own nature, a life on earth that is the beginning of eternal life.
