Facts of Our Faith

THE SON OF GOD BECAME MAN

As described by the Apostle John in his Gospel, the Word, the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, became flesh so that we might know God's love for us, so that we might live through him as our model of human holiness. "Love one another as I have loved you." He suffered for us and gave his life for us. Thus, Christian love is sacrificial love, putting the needs of others above our needs and desires, especially in Christian marriage. The Word became flesh also to make us "partakers of the divine nature," to make us sharers in his divinity. This seems like when we become children of human parents participating in the humanity of our father and mother. But this is a sharing in the divine nature as spiritual children of our divine Father working toward eternal happiness with him.
