Facts of Our Faith

Article 9 of the Apostles creed:
I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY Catholic Church
Paragraph 1. The Church in God's Plan

III. The Mystery of the Church

The Church----- mystery of men's union with God

772 It is in the Church that Christ fulfills and reveals his own mystery as the purpose of God's plan: "to unite all things in him." St. Paul calls the nuptial union of Christ and the Church a great mystery. Because she is united to Christ as to her bridegroom, she becomes a mystery in her turn. Contemplating this mystery in her, Paul exclaims: "Christ in you, the hope of glory."

773 In the Church this communion of men with God, in "the love that never ends," is the purpose which governs everything in her that is a sacramental means, tied to this passing world. The Church's structure is totally ordered to the holiness of Christ's members. And holiness is measured according to the great mystery in which the bride responds with the gift of love to the gift of the bridegroom. Mary goes before us all in the holiness that is the Church's mystery as "the bride without spot or wrinkle." This is why the "Marian" dimension of the church precedes the "Petrine."

The universal Sacrament of salvation

774 The Greek word mysterion was translated into Latin by two terms: mysterium and sacramentum. In later usage the term sacramentum emphasizes the visible sign of the hidden reality of salvation, which was indicated by the term mysterium. In this sense, Christ himself is the mystery of salvation: "For there is no other mystery of God, except Christ." The saving work of his holy and sanctifying humanity is the sacrament of salvation, which is revealed and active in the Church's sacraments. The seven sacraments are the signs and instruments by which the Holy Spirit spreads the grace of Christ the head throughout the Church, which is his Body. The Church, then, both contains and communicates the invisible grace she signifies. It is in this analogical sense that the Church is called a "sacrament."

WISHING EVERYONE A

HAPPY AND BLESSED

THANKSGIVING

MARK YOUR CALENDARS: Thursday Dec. 1st will be our Community Reconciliation Service. What better way, as we mark the end of this Year of Mercy, to prepare ourselves for Advent and Christmas. God's Mercy is always there for us, but we must seek it.

WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION NEWS: Our annual Christmas Party will be Friday, Dec. 2nd, at 11:30AM at Lone Star Barbecue. ALL Women of the Parish are invited and the sign-up sheet is on the credenza. Lunch will be selected from the buffet and payment will be on an individual basis. A $10.00 gift exchange will be held for those wishing to participate. Also, the second printing of our cookbooks are here. Please consider giving them as Christmas gifts. They sell for $10 each.

COLUMBARIUM UPDATE: As you know, the Columbarium committee has been working with the Diocese to make the changes that they feel would be in the best interest for the Columbarium and Prayer garden for our parish. We are waiting for updates from the last diocese meeting about this project whereas there are still some small obstacles to solve that may cause a delay in signing contracts and ordering the Columbarium. (This Diocese committee does not have a meeting scheduled for December and therefore no action can be taken until January.) But we want you to be reassured that we will not stop working until all issues are resolved. We will keep you abreast of all changes and let you know when everything is finalized. Please contact Charlie Currier if you have a question or would like more information.

JOIN US ON DECEMBER 4TH IN SANTEE AT 1:00PM. Father Max has invited Fr. Stephen Imbarrato, from Priest for Life, to facilitate a half day mission on Sunday December fourth at Santee. Father Stephen will be replacing Fr. Max at all Masses at all locations on Saturday December third and Sunday December fourth. The mission reflections will be at 1:00 PM in the church at St. Ann's. Fr. Stephen has oversight of the Missionaries of the Gospel of Life program at Priest for Life. This is a Lay association of the Priests for Life. He will be sharing the purpose and focus of this association. Please make plans to join us for this spiritual and informative weekend.

THE ANGEL TREE is up in Buchanan Hall . There are 25 Blue Angels for EES children and 20 lavender Angels for needy seniors. Please help us make their Christmas memorable by taking an Angel, and returning it with a gift. Please do not put gifts in the tree. All gifts must be returned by December 4th. Thank you. NEW INFORMATION AVAILABLE: Recently Pope Francis decreed a major reform in the Catholic Church's process for the declaration of nullity of a marriage. Some of the significant changes include the amount of time involved in the process as well as the cost. Our Parish currently has two case assistants to provide information and work with petitioners who want to present their case to the Tribunal. All inquiries are strictly confidential. For more information you may contact Father Max or Jeanne Flannery at 803 -496-5586 or Anne Livingston at 803- 897-3112.

ROSARY is recited every Tuesday at 9:30AM. We also pray the Chaplet of Divine Mercy. Come join us.

GOD IS GOOD—ALL THE TIME
