Facts of Our Faith

Article 9 of the Apostles creed:
I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY Catholic Church
Paragraph 2. The Church----People of God, Body of Christ, Temple of the Holy Spirit

I. The church---Body of Christ
The Church is communion with Jesus
787 From the beginning, Jesus associated his disciples with his own life, revealed the mystery of the Kingdom to them, and gave them a share in his mission, joy, and sufferings. Jesus spoke of a still more intimate communion between him and those who would follow him: “Abide in me, and I in you . . . I am the vine, you are the branches.” And he proclaimed a mysterious and real communion between his own body and ours: “He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me and I in him.”

788 When his visible presence was taken from them, Jesus did not leave his disciples orphans. He promised to remain with them until the end of time; he sent them his Spirit.

As a result, communion with Jesus has become more intense: By communicating his Spirit, Christ mystically constitutes as his body those brothers of his who are called together from every nation.

789 The comparison of the Church with the body casts light on the intimate bond between Christ and his Church. Not only is she gathered around him, she is united in him, in his body. Three aspects of the Church as the Body of Christ are to be more specifically noted: the unity of all her members with each other as a result of the union with Christ; Christ as head of the Body; and the Church as bride of Christ.

“One Body”
790 Believers who respond to God’s word and become members of Christ’s Body, become intimately united with him: “In that body the life of Christ is communicated to those who believe, and who, through the sacraments, are united in a real way to Christ in his Passion and glorification.” This is especially true of Baptism, which unites us to Christ’s death and Resurrection, and the Eucharist, by which “really sharing in the body of the Lord, we are taken up into communion with him and with one another.”

WEEKLY NEWS

The parish would like to thank Father Max and Grand Knight Dick Grindle for inviting Father Stephen Imbarrato from Priests For Life on Sunday, Dec. 4. All who were there were very impressed by Father's passion for the Pro Life Movement and Father's candor about his life experiences prior to becoming a priest. Thank you both for making this opportunity possible

The parish would like to give a big thank you to Knight Denny Masson for the wonderful job he did in the construction and painting of the Wise Men and camels, a great addition to the crèche and Holy Family constructed last year by Grand Knight Dick Grindle. Our thanks also to Knights Larry Miller and Fred Kemmerley who aided in setting it up. Please thank these Knights when you see them.

We Thank you for your donations to the Angel Tree. It is much appreciated. Meryl, Susan W. Jerri.
