Facts of Our Faith

I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY Catholic Church

Paragraph 3. The Church Is One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic

I. The Church is one

Wounds to unity

817 In fact, "in this one and only Church of God from its very beginning there arose certain rifts, which the Apostle strongly censures as damnable. But in subsequent centuries much more serious dissensions appeared and whole communities became separated from full communion with the Catholic Church--- for which often men on both sides were to blame.

The ruptures that wound Christ's Body ----here we must distinguish heresy, apostasy, and schism--- do not occur without human sin: Where there are sins, there are also divisions, schisms, heresies, and disputes. Where there is virtue, there are also harmony and unity, from which arise the one heart and one soul of all believers.

818 "However, one cannot charge with the sin of the separation those who at present are born into these communities (that resulted from such separation) and in them are brought up in the faith of Christ, and the Catholic Church accepts them with respect and affection as brothers. All who have been justified by faith in baptism are incorporated into Christ; they therefore have a right to be called Christians, and with good reason are accepted as brothers in the Lord by the children of the Catholic Church.

819 "Furthermore, many elements of sanctification and of truth" are found outside the visible confines of the Catholic Church: "the written Word of God; the life of grace; faith, hope, and charity, with the other interior gifts of the Holy Spirit, as well as visible elements. Christ's Spirit uses these Churches and ecclesial communities as means of salvation, whose power derives from the fullness of grace and truth that Christ has entrusted to the Catholic Church. All these blessings come from Christ and lead to him, and are in themselves calls to "Catholic unity."
