Special Prayers for Lent

The seven Penitential Psalms

The Seven Penitential Psalms have served as a special source of prayer and reflection during Lent, for centuries. The tone of their honest pleading invites us to turn to our Lord with candor and desire and to come before our God, as sinners with real needs. They can help us come to know God's love and mercy.

Psalm 37- The Fate of Sinners and the Reward of the Just

Do not be provoked by evildoers; do not envy those who do wrong.

Like grass they wither quickly; like green plants they wilt away.

Trust in the Lord and do good that you may dwell in the land and live secure.

Find your delight in the Lord who will give you your hearts desire.

Commit your way to the Lord; trust in him and he will act,

And make your righteousness shine like the dawn, your justice like noonday.

Be still before the Lord; wait for him.

Do not be provoked by the prosperous, nor by malicious schemers.

Refrain from anger, abandon wrath; do not be provoked; it brings only harm.

Those who do evil will be cut off, but those who wait for the Lord will inherit the earth.

Wait a little, and the wicked will be no more; look for them and they will not be there.

But the poor will inherit the earth, will delight in great prosperity.

The wicked plot against the righteous and gnash their teeth at them;

But my Lord laughs at them, because he sees that their day is coming.

The wicked unsheathe their swords; they string their bows,

To fell the poor and oppressed, to slaughter those whose way is upright.

Their swords will pierce their own hearts; their bows will be broken;

Better the meagerness of the righteous one than the plenty of the wicked.

The arms of the wicked will be broken, while the Lord will sustain the righteous. The Lord knows the days of the blameless; their heritage lasts forever;

They will not be ashamed when times are bad; in days of famine they will be satisfied. The wicked perish, enemies of the Lord;

They shall be consumed like fattened lambs; like smoke they disappear.

If you have any questions your can call me at 843-709-4723. I Choose the Sky is written by Emily Wilson . She a great speaker and shows young women that even in today's society we can still follow and live by our faith with out falling into societies expectations. If you would like to hear some of her messages, such as Dating Red Flags, Is it bad to go to parties, Can you say I am beautiful, and What I want girls leaving for college to know, you can find her on youtube at <https://www.youtube.com/user/emilywilsonn>.

HEROIC WOMEN, REMARKABLE LIVES: The Bible is filled with pages of narratives of people that gave their entire lives to God. Many of these stories are about men and a natural question arises, "Are there women in the Bible? Do they have a place in the Church?" It is a good question with a great answer. There are many women who are a vital part of salvation history and their stories are critical parts of Sacred Scripture. Do you know them? I Choose the Sky paints a beautiful portrait of just a handful of these women – seventeen, in fact, whose stories are easily glossed over, but not easily forgotten. These women, heroic and virtuous, teach us something about the very fabric of human-kindness and God's love. This book is about their choice to raise their eyes heavenward despite difficulties and live their lives with hope, boldness, generosity, and great faith. This scriptural devotion will inspire young women to raise their heads along with Mary, Martha, Lydia, and Esther and look into the eyes of Jesus, the God who loves deeply and perfectly.

MARK YOUR CALENDAR as we celebrate First Communion on Sunday, May 7th and Confirmation at Our Lady of Hope on Wednesday, May 17th.
