Special Prayers for Lent

The seven Penitential Psalms
The Seven Penitential Psalms have served as a special source of prayer and reflection during Lent, for centuries. The tone of their honest pleading invites us to turn to our Lord with candor and desire and to come before our God, as sinners with real needs. They can help us come to know God's love and mercy.

Psalm 51- The Miserere: Prayer of Repentance
Have mercy on me, oh God, in accord with your merciful love;
In your abundant compassion blot out my transgressions.
Thoroughly wash away my guilt, and from my sin cleanse me.
For I know my transgressions, my sin is always before me.
Against you alone have I sinned, I have done what is evil in your eyes;
So that you are just in your word and without reproach in your judgment.
Behold I was born in guilt, in sin my mother conceived me.
Behold you desire true sincerity, and secretly you teach me wisdom.
Cleanse me with hyssop, that I may be pure, wash me and I will be whiter than snow.
You will let me hear gladness and joy, the bones you have crushed will rejoice.

Turn away your face from my sins, blot out my iniquities.
A clean heart create for me, God; renew within me a steadfast spirit.
Do not drive me from your face nor take from me your holy spirit.
Restore to me the gladness of your salvation; uphold me with a willing spirit.
I will teach the wicked your ways, that sinners may return to you.
Rescue me from violent bloodshed, my saving God, and my tongue will sing joyfully.
Lord, you will open my lips and my mouth will proclaim your praise.
For you do not desire sacrifice or I would give it; a burnt offering you would not accept.
My sacrifice, oh God, is a contrite spirit; a humbled heart you will not scorn.
Treat Zion kindly according to your good will; build up the walls of Jerusalem.
Then you will be pleased with lawful sacrifice, holocausts offered on your altar.

If you have any questions your can call me at 843-709-4723. I Choose the Sky is written by Emily Wilson . She a great speaker and shows young women that even in today's society we can still follow and live by our faith with out falling into societies expectations. If you would like to hear some of her messages, such as Dating Red Flags, Is it bad to go to parties, Can you say I am beautiful, and What I want girls leaving for college to know, you can find her on youtube at <https://www.youtube.com/user/emilywilsonn>.

HEROIC WOMEN, REMARKABLE LIVES: The Bible is filled with pages of narratives of people that gave their entire lives to God. Many of these stories are about men and a natural question arises, "Are there women in the Bible? Do they have a place in the Church?" It is a good question with a great answer. There are many women who are a vital part of salvation history and their stories are critical parts of Sacred Scripture. Do you know them? I Choose the Sky paints a beautiful portrait of just a handful of these women – seventeen, in fact, whose stories are easily glossed over, but not easily forgotten. These women, heroic and virtuous, teach us something about the very fabric of human-kindness and God's love. This book is about their choice to raise their eyes heavenward despite difficulties and live their lives with hope, boldness, generosity, and great faith. This scriptural devotion will inspire young women to raise their heads along with Mary, Martha, Lydia, and Esther and look into the eyes of Jesus, the God who loves deeply and perfectly.

REST IN PEACE - Let us remember in prayer, all those who have been called home by the God of Love, especially:

ED KELLEY - dear friend of Art & Marion Pickens, who died this past week. May he rest in peace with the Risen Lord.
