Special Prayers for Lent

The seven Penitential Psalms
The Seven Penitential Psalms have served as a special source of prayer and reflection during Lent, for centuries. The tone of their honest pleading invites us to turn to our Lord with candor and desire and to come before our God, as sinners with real needs. They can help us come to know God's love and mercy.

Psalm 130-Prayer for Pardon and Mercy
Out of the depths I cry to you, Lord, hear my cry!
May your ears be attentive to my cry for mercy.
If you, Lord, keep account of sins, who can stand?
But with you is forgiveness and so you are revered.
I wait for the Lord, my soul waits and I hope for his word.
My soul looks for the Lord more than sentinels for daybreak.
More than sentinels for daybreak, let Israel hope in the Lord.
For with the Lord is mercy, with him is plenteous redemption.
And he will redeem Israel from all its sins.

Psalm 143-A Prayer in Distress
Lord hear my prayer; in your faithfulness listen to my pleading.
The enemy has pursued my soul: he has crushed my life.
He has made me dwell in darkness like those long dead.
My spirit is faint within me: my heart despairs.
I ponder all your deeds, the works of your hands I recall.
I stretch out my hands toward you; my soul is like a parched land.
Hasten to answer me, Lord, for my spirit fails me.
In the morning let me hear of your mercy, for in you I trust.
Show me the path I should walk, for I entrust my life to you.
Teach me to do your will for you are my God.
For your name's sake, Lord, give me life.
In your mercy put an end to all that oppresses my soul,
For I am your servant.

I Choose the Sky is written by Emily Wilson . If you would like to hear some of her messages, such as Dating Red Flags, Is it bad to go to parties, Can you say I am beautiful, and What I want girls leaving for college to know, you can find her on youtube at <https://www.youtube.com/user/emilywilsonn>.

HEROIC WOMEN, REMARKABLE LIVES: The Bible is filled with pages of narratives of people that gave their entire lives to God. Many of these stories are about men and a natural question arises, "Are there women in the Bible? Do they have a place in the Church?" It is a good question with a great answer. There are many women who are a vital part of salvation history and their stories are critical parts of Sacred Scripture. Do you know them? I Choose the Sky paints a beautiful portrait of just a handful of these women – seventeen, in fact, whose stories are easily glossed over, but not easily forgotten. These women, heroic and virtuous, teach us something about the very fabric of human-kindness and God's love. This book is about their choice to raise their eyes heavenward despite difficulties and live their lives with hope, boldness, generosity, and great faith. This scriptural devotion will inspire young women to raise their heads along with Mary, Martha, Lydia, and Esther and look into the eyes of Jesus, the God who loves deeply and perfectly.

NEW PARISHIONERS- We are pleased to welcome the newly registered members of our parish family and their active participation in parish affairs is cordially invited and happily anticipated. We welcome the following people:
