Facts of Our Faith

I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY Catholic Church
 Paragraph 3. The Church Is One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic

III The Church Is Catholic
 What does "catholic" mean?
 830 The word "catholic" means universal, in the sense of "according to the totality" or in keeping with the whole. The Church is catholic in a double sense: First, the Church is catholic because Christ is present in her. "Where there is Christ Jesus, there is the Catholic Church." In her subsists the fullness of Christ's body united with its head; this implies that she receives from him "the fullness of the means of salvation which he has willed: correct and complete confession of faith, full sacramental life, and ordained ministry in apostolic succession. The Church was, in this fundamental sense, catholic on the day of Pentecost and will always be so until the day Parousia.

831 Secondly, the Church is catholic because she has been sent by Christ on a mission to the whole of the human race. All men are called to the new people of God. This People, therefore, while remaining one and only one, is to be spread throughout the whole world and to all ages so that the design of God's will may be fulfilled: he made human one in the beginning and has decreed that all his children who were scattered should be finally gathered together as one. The character of universality which adorns the People of God is a gift from the Lord himself whereby the Catholic Church ceaselessly and efficaciously seeks for the return of all humanity and all its goods, under Christ the head in the unity of his Spirit.

Each Particular Church is "catholic"

832 "The Church of Christ" is really present in all legitimately organized local groups of the faithful, which, in so far as they are united to their pastors, are also quite appropriately called Churches in the New Testament. In them the faithful are gathered together through the preaching of the Gospel of Christ, and the mystery of the Lord's Supper is celebrated. In these communities Christ is present, through whose power and influence the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church is constituted.

Flowers are for altar (in front) and/or for the flower stands. Real flowers are preferred. You may order the flowers yourself, use flowers from your garden, or use potted plants which can be taken home afterwards.

THE SANCTUARY LAMP signals the Eucharistic presence of the Lord Jesus in the tabernacle and burns continuously for 7 days. You may have the sanctuary lamp memorialized for either a sick person, a deceased loved one, or a special intention, for a weekly donation of $25.00. Please call Margaret Fouts (897-4787) to schedule a date or check the sheet on the bulletin board in the hall and then fill out an envelope found on the credenza and turn it in with the regular collection.
