Facts of Our Faith

I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Paragraph 4. Christ's Faithful-----
Hierarchy, Laity, Consecrated Life

I. THE HIERARCHICAL CONSTITUTION OF THE CHURCH

Why the ecclesial ministry?

874 Christ is himself the source of ministry in the Church. He instituted the Church. He gave her authority and mission, orientation and goal: in order to shepherd the People of God and to increase its numbers without cease, Christ the Lord set up in his Church a variety of offices which aim at the good of the whole body. The holders of office, who are invested with a sacred power, are, in fact, dedicated to promoting the interests of their brethren so that all may attain salvation.

875 How are they to believe in him of whom they have not heard? And how are they to hear without a preacher? No one, no individual and no community can proclaim the Gospel to himself: "Faith comes from what is heard." No one can give himself the mandate and the mission to proclaim the Gospel. The one sent by the Lord does not speak and act on his own authority, but by virtue of Christ's authority; not as a member of the community, but speaking to it in the name of Christ. No one can bestow grace upon himself; it must be given and offered. This fact presupposes ministers of grace, authorized and empowered by Christ. From him, bishops and priests receive the mission and the sacred power to act in persona Christa Capitis; deacons receive the strength to serve the people of God in the diaconia of liturgy, word and charity, in communion with the bishop and his presbyterate. The ministry, in which Christ's emissaries do and give by God's grace what they cannot do and give by their own powers, is called a sacrament by the Church's tradition. Indeed, the ministry of the Church is conferred by a special sacrament.

The Mass readings for each day are presented and then a written reflection is given to assist us in applying the readings to our daily lives. We are also encouraged to take a short period of quiet silence to let God speak to us. If you have questions, please check with Fred Kemmerley

33 DAYS TO MORNING GLORY- A MARIAN RETREAT AND CONSECRATION: In honor of the 100th anniversary of Fatima, Bishop Robert Gugliemone has asked the Catholics in our diocese to consider making a personal consecration to the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is a 6-week retreat which meets weekly in preparation for Marian consecration. The first meeting will be August 9 at St. Mary's Chapel following the 9am Mass and will conclude September 8, the feast of the Nativity of Mary. Our group size is limited and a small fee for materials is required. For those parishioners who have signed up to participate in the Marian retreat we will have our first meeting on Aug. 9th at the Parish Center next to St. Mary's Chapel at 9:30AM following the 9AM Mass.
