Facts of Our Faith

I BELIEVE IN THE HOLY CATHOLIC CHURCH

Paragraph 4. Christ's Faithful-----
Hierarchy, Laity, Consecrated Life

I. THE HIERARCHICAL CONSTITUTION OF THE CHURCH

Why the ecclesial ministry?

876 Intrinsically linked to the sacramental nature of ecclesial ministry is its character as service. Entirely dependent on Christ who gives mission and authority, members are truly "slaves of Christ," in the image of him who freely took "the form of a slave" for us. Because the word and grace of which they are ministers are not their own, but are given to them by Christ for the sake of others, they must freely become the slaves of all.

877 Likewise, it belongs to the sacramental nature of ecclesial ministry that it have a collegial character. In fact, from the beginning of his ministry, the Lord Jesus instituted the Twelve as "the seeds of the new Israel and the beginning of the sacred hierarchy." Chosen together, they were also sent out together, and their fraternal unity would be at the service of the fraternal communion of all the faithful: they would reflect and witness to the communion of the divine persons. For this reason every bishop exercises his ministry from within the episcopal college, in communion with the bishop of Rome, the successor of St. Peter and head of the college. So also priests exercise their ministry from within the presbyterium of the diocese, under the direction of their bishop.

878 Finally, it belongs to the sacramental nature of ecclesial ministry that it have a personal character. Although Christ's ministers act in communion with one another, they also act in a personal way. Each one is called personally: "You follow me" in order to be a personal witness within the common mission, acting "in his person" and for the other persons: "I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit..."
"I absolve you..."

FAITH ENRICHMENT NEWS: We have learned about Lectio Divina in our sessions with Cardinal Collins. Lectio Divina is reading and meditating on short passages from Sacred Scripture and then applying them to the way we live. We also have available on the credenza booklets entitled "the Word among us" for our individual Lectio Divina meditations. The Mass readings for each day are presented and then a written reflection is given to assist us in applying the readings to our daily lives. We are also encouraged to take a short period of quiet silence to let God speak to us. If you have questions, please check with Fred Kemmerley.

PLEASE PRAY FOR VOCATIONS that the Lord of the Harvest may open the hearts of our young people to the possibility of a life in the priesthood or religious life.

ROSARY: The Rosary and the Chaplet of Divine Mercy are recited every Tuesday at 9:30AM.
Come join us.
