THE BAPTISM OF OUR LORD

Jesus humbles himself to receive John's baptism of repentance not to be purified himself but to purify us. As St. Gregory Nazianzen wrote, "Christ was baptized that he might plunge the old Adam entirely in the water." Because of Christ's baptism, we can be confident that at our own baptism the Lord "grasps us by the hand" and heals us from the devil's oppression. We give the Lord glory and praise on this feast for having made us His beloved sons and daughters, well-pleasing to Him.

Entrance Antiphon: Matthew 3:16-17
 After the Lord was baptized, the heavens were opened, and the Spirit descended upon Him like a dove, and the voice of the Father thundered:
 This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

(From Magnificat magazine, introduction to today's Mass)
