ORDINARY TIME

As we depart from the Christmas season and enter again into Ordinary Time, let us recall that Jesus promises to be with us, not just in privileged moments like Christmas Day... He promises to be with us ALWAYS.

Most of Jesus' life, from infancy to twelve and from twelve to thirty, was seemingly ordinary, as witnessed by neighbors who hear him preach and say, ISN'T THIS THE CARPENTERS SON?

As we move from Christmas into the ordinary, let us not forget that Jesus continues to walk with us in the daily routine of life which he has sanctified, and continues to sanctify, with His abiding presence.
