Luke 4:24
Amen, I say to you, no prophet is accepted in his own native place.

Reflection:
God has given to every member of the Church the offices of priest, prophet, and king. How often do we recognize the gift of prophecy in our fellow Christians? The Lord has placed them here to speak to us and contribute to our own sanctification. Let us not reject the gift of God, like those in today's Gospel, because we see the one bringing it as "ordinary." Rather let us recognize God's voice in our own fellow men. Let us listen for the extraordinary message that we just may hear.

ROSARY AND CHAPLET OF DIVINE MERCY are recited every Tuesday at 9:30AM. Come join us.

O Mary, Mother of Jesus and Mother of us all, we turn to you today as the one who said "Yes" to Life. "You will conceive and bear a Son," the angel told you. Despite the surprise and the uncertainty about how this could be, you said yes. "Be it done unto me according to your word." Mary, we pray today for all mothers who are afraid to be mothers. We pray for those who feel threatened and overwhelmed by their pregnancy. Intercede for them, that God may give them the grace to say yes and the courage to go on. May they have the grace to reject the false solution of abortion. May they say with you, "Be it done unto me according to your word." May they experience the help of Christian people, and know the peace that comes from doing God's will. Amen
