LUKE 7:38 A COMMENTARY

"Give, and gifts will be given to you, a good measure, packed together, shaken down, and overflowing, will be poured into your lap. For the measure with which you measure will in return be measured out to you."

These beautiful words assure us that when we show mercy and generosity, we too are beneficiaries. "To pardon an injustice received," St. Vincent de Paul said, "is to heal the wound in your own heart"—we can be freed from the resentment and bitterness that may otherwise plague us for many years. Ultimately, the good measure poured on us is divine charity, active in what we say and do, for "the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us" (Rom 5:5).

Lord Jesus, make our hearts like Yours.
Fill us with Your Love, and help us to trust in Your Presence, especially when we are suffering. Amen
