“Dear brothers and sisters, especially you elderly, the best of life is yet to come. ‘But we are old, what more is yet to come?’ The best, because the best of LIFE is yet to come. Let us hope, let us hope for this fullness of life that awaits us all, when the Lord calls us. May the Mother of the Lord and our Mother, who has preceded us to heaven, restore to us the eager anticipation of expectation, because it is not an anesthetized expectation, it is not a bored expectation. No, it is an expectation with eager anticipation; it is an expectation: ‘When Will my Lord come? When will I be able to go there?’...Let us be attentive, dear old people, contemporaries, let us be attentive. He is expecting us. Just one passage, and then the party.”
