THE GRACE TO LISTEN TO AND ACT ON HIS WORDS

Mary, you are the mother of the Word Incarnate: the happiest of all human beings, because you spoke to the Word of God. You are the Queen of the Apostles, and you spoke, reminding the apostles of Jesus' words and commenting on them.

But you are also the Mother of interior silence, because you listened to what the Word told you. You allowed the Holy Spirit to address you, and you were attentive to the teaching that your Son, the Word, gave to his apostles. What you do, you do for the Church. No one is happier than you, Mary, because you are still closest to the Incarnate Word. No one is more silent than you, Mary, because you are most attentive in your nearness to the Incarnate Word.

Why is there so little silence in me? I am often far from the Word, because listening to the Word is not yet a habit, because I have not yet asked you, Mary, to teach me to listen to Jesus, and to listen to you, Mother of interior silence. If I were to meet Jesus today, I would listen to Him without tiring.

Venerable Francis Xavier Nguyen Van Thuan

(Cardinal Nguyen Van Thuan (died 2002) was imprisoned by the Vietnamese government for 13 years, during which time he secretly sent prayers and spiritual writings to his flock.)
