MARKED BY THE GLORIOUS CROSS

“In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.” So begins the Mass and so begins many of our actions. We take no notice of what we are doing because we are in a hurry to pray. We think that making the sign of the cross is not praying, but simply a gateway leading to prayer. Not that we are waving our arms in the air in an unrecognizable gesture: we do it correctly but without calm, or without particular attention, because we want to recite a Hail Mary or an Our Father, or because we are beginning to celebrate Mass. Yet few moments of prayer are so intense, so concentrated, as making the sign of the cross.... We mark our activity and our rest, our joys and our sorrows, with the sign of the cross and the Trinitarian name, and in that way we fulfill our Christian being in the course of life. Even our death will be marked with the sign of the cross. The cross means sacrifice for love, it is death for resurrection. The sign of the cross over our actions signifies to wipe away our selfishness and free us for love; it means renouncing what is empty, renouncing prestige and the longing to possess and to dominate, in order to consecrate the work to Christ. Father Luis Alonzo-Schoekel, S.J.
