THE FORCE OF PRAYER

That is the force of prayer, believing prayer, and having steadfast faith that it will be answered because the asker believes in three things: the infinite GOODNESS and infinite POWER OF God and the VERACITY of his words—words in which he often promised in the holy Gospel always to respond to our faith. People's prayers will be answered if they have unwavering faith that if they pray with humility and trust, they will receive either what they are asking for or something better than what they are asking for. Their prayers, far from being useless and ignored, will always, always be useful, always be answered, and always obtain good, either what they are asking for or (God's goodness being so great) something better. God is so good that he sets no limits on the effectiveness of our prayers, but no matter how great our requests are, his power and goodness will always surpass them. He allows himself to give even more than we ask. My God, give me that faith, and since my prayers can do so much good, may I pray and pray and pray, for myself and for those you have placed beside me in my life. Let me pray to you with profound faith in the effectiveness of humble, believing prayers the way you want me to pray ...for your glory, for the good of your children.
