PREPARING FOR LENT

Seven weeks are set aside every year for us to let go of the old and to enter into the new, because God is merciful. Now we can pass over from the old life that we led before Lent into the new life after. This "passover" is a daily occurrence; it is not only during Lent. But Lent enhances it and makes you think.

It concentrates you. It brings you into the heart of God. Lent is you and I, like St. John the well beloved, putting our head on the bosom of Christ and hearing the heartbeats of God (John 13:21-25). When you hear the heartbeats of God, you change. We try to listen well to those heartbeats during Lent, so that we may not only repent and make our peace with God, but forgive all who have hurt us.

Let each one of us open his or her heart to God, and let him wash us clean, let him fill us with a hunger for him, and a thirst. Let him make us his own, so that when we come to Easter our joy will be beyond reckoning.

Servant of God Catherine de Hueck Doherty
