FIRST SUNDAY OF LENT

Pope Benedict XVI called the temptation of Jesus in the desert “a descent into the perils besetting mankind.” This happened so that we may be counted among those “who receive the abundance of grace, coming to reign in life through the one Jesus Christ.” The “one righteous act” that St. Paul speaks about in the Letter to the Romans is Jesus’ unflinching fidelity to the Father’s will.

As the serpent comes close, we will not be duped by the suggestion that somehow

God is jealous

at the prospect that “we will be like gods.”

For God

himself planted that hope in our hearts. The Lord’s greatest joy and glory is that we share his image and likeness, not through self-seeking but through the obedience by which “many will be made righteous.”
