Nineteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Introduction to the Mass

When the disciples see Jesus walking on the water, he summons them to faith, a way of approaching reality that entails leaving behind our old way of measuring things and learning to see all in the light of the One who calls to us. Yet we should not be surprised that Christ often comes in ways that “underwhelm” us, as Elijah found out in the tiny whispering sound of God’s presence.

For Jesus comes to us in simple ways, seen only with the eyes of faith: the pouring of water over an infant’s head; a whispered conversation in the confessional, bread and wine consecrated in the middle of the day as the world rushes on. But when such faith takes hold of us, we want everyone to share in it, as St. Paul testifies.

(Magnificat, vol.25, No.6)
