COMMUNION OF SAINTS (CCC 958-959; 1475)

The doctrine of the Communion of Saints flows from our belief that we Christians are closely united as one family in the Spirit of Jesus Christ. The bond of love makes us one. In a certain sense, all of God's people are dependent on one another:

- 1-THE CHURCH MILITANT: Those of us who are still living depend on the prayers and good works of our Christian brothers and sisters who are united to us in the friendship of the Lord.
- 2-THE CHURCH SUFFERING: We also believe in the value of prayer for our departed brothers and sisters who are being purified in Purgatory.
- 3-THE CHURCH TRIUMPHANT: Finally, we believe that those Christian heroes we call saints in heaven are vitally interested in those of us who are still living or in Purgatory. and for our good, they offer the merits they earned on earth, through Jesus, our one Mediator and Savior.
