“In Jesus Christ, the Son of God, God himself, God from God, became man.... God’s everlasting ‘today’ has comedown into the fleeting today of the world and lifted our momentary today into God’s eternal today. God is so great that he can become small. God is so powerful that he can make himself vulnerable and come to us as a defenseless child, so that we can love him. God is so good that he can give up his divine splendor and come down to a stable, so that we might find him, so that his goodness might touch us, give itself to us and continue to work through us. This is Christmas: ‘You are my son, this day I have begotten you.’ God has become one of us so that we can be with him and become like him. As a sign, he chose the Child lying in the manger: this is how God is: This is how we come to know him. And on every child shines something of the splendor of that ‘today’, of that closeness of God which we ought to love and to which we must yield” (Pope Benedict XVI).
